Three full-length Highland romances from author Aileen Adam's Highland Heartbeats series. A Soldier's Salvation Book Seven of the Highland Heartbeats Series! Forever seeking salvation... Rodric Anderson isn't a soldier anymore. Nay, many would refer to him as a mercenary-a soldier for hire. He's embroiled in a Duncan clan matter. He's also hunted by the authorities, wanted by women, and tied to none. He's a part of a band of brothers, all former soldiers, some outlaws, all who make themselves available for the right coin-sometimes, the right cause. One woman has caught his eye. A shrew of a woman. Was it he could not get her out of his mind? Caitlin's hand has been given in marriage by her wretch of a stepfather to a man who is no less a wretch himself. Her only escape is to run away. Except that things are never quite so simple when it comes to choices. *** A Warrior's Soul Book Eight of the Highland Heartbeats Series! Some words are meant forever... Ysmaine's half Scottish, half French, all attitude and independence. Quinn's a mercenary that needs more cash than the recent jobs have been providing. She's got the means to money. He's got a need for it. She's not willing to do what needs to be done for the money. He's willing to kidnap and hold her for ransom. Until... Until a Frenchman with a title and no morals steps into the picture. Now... Things have changed.

Ghost is the most familiar stranger Leelah MacLeod has ever met. Though he's just arrived at Dunvegan, he's been haunting her visions for years. She loves him, so she must save him from a dangerous liaison...and his own destructive nature. Ramsey MacLaren, the Ghost, is fighting powerful inner demons that he believes he must fight alone. A desire for vengeance drives him, and a pact with a witch might mean betrayal to one of the few men he trusts. He has no time for distractions, especially one as young and beautiful as Leelah MacLeod. She claims she is destined to help him, but Ghost knows he'll destroy her if he lets her into his world...and his heart.

Some promises are hard to keep... Phillip promised he'd let her go home. He promised, after she completed her task, she'd be free. He didn't promise her that he wouldn't capture her heart before he released her. For Sarah, captive of the Highland laird, that these promises are kept is paramount. Phillip never expected to fall in love with the woman who was supposed to save his brother's life. He also never expected to break a promise. But some promises are hard to keep, especially when he finds out the secrets she's keeping.

Like battles, some redemption cannot be won... In early 1746, Alasdair Macintyre is headed home after the rout at Culloden on Drumossie Moor, in sight of Inverness. The battle has been lost and scar on his face that makes him so ferocious-looking that even children run from him in terror. He learns his father has betrothed him to a local lass—a nearly blind woman—in exchange for a sizeable dowry and a chunk of land. The woman brings with her a companion that hates him immediately. He has no interest in having a chain around his neck, not even in the form of a woman he once knew as a girl—a gangly, twig of a girl. But Beltris is no longer the girl Alasdair Macintyre remembers. She's blossomed into a stunning woman, though one that is terrified of the scarred Highlander she's betrothed to.

The Age of Kali is a series of mythic fantasy novels by international bestselling novelist Falguni Kothari. The first book of the series, Soul Warrior, introduces readers to a fictional law-governed Cosmos made up of heavenly, demonic and human realms and its protagonist, Lord Karna, the legendary guardian of the Human Realm, who is coerced into training six godlings into demon hunters against a rising demon army. The series arc interlocks into a war of domination between the Light and Dark forces of the Cosmos and the race to control the one soul capable of total cosmic annihilation, demi-god Karna's and Draupadi's secret child.

A Highland warrior battles to reclaim his birthright in the first of a new series filled with seduction, revenge, and soul-stirring passion... They call him the Beast—a hardened mercenary whose heart seems as cold as his icy blue gaze. They do not know his true name: Niall Braewick, son of the Laird of Kincaid. It has been years since he escaped into the forest the night his father was murdered. Now he has returned, ablaze with a vengeful hunger. He will gain the MacClaren chief's trust, gather his clan, and take back his lands. And take the MacClaren's daughter as well... Though he pulled her from the river, saving her life, Elspeth has been warned to keep her distance from her father's hired warrior. He is a barbarian—a shame, as he is far more compelling than the lechers and fools competing for her dowry. Little does she know that, like the castle itself, she is a prize Niall intends to claim...but will he extract blood for blood and possess what is his, or will his enemy's beautiful, innocent daughter tempt him to forsake his dream of conquest?

Only her love could gentle his savage soul— He was born to a clan of warriors of supernatural strength, but Gavrael McIlloch abandoned his name and his Highland castle, determined to escape the dark fate of his ancestors. Hiding his identity from the relentless rival clan that hunted him, he called himself Grimm to protect the people he cared for, vowing never to acknowledge his love for ravishing Jillian St. Clair. Yet even from afar he watched over her, and when her father sent an urgent summons, "Come for Jillian," he raced to her side—into a competition to win her hand in marriage. Why had he run from her so many years before? And why return now to see her offered as a prize in her father's manipulative game? Furious, Jillian vowed never to wed. But Grimm was the man she loved, the one who urged her to marry another. He tried to pretend indifference as she tempted him, but he could not deny the fierce desires that compelled him to abduct her from the altar. She was the only woman who could tame the beast that raged within him—even as deadly enemies plotted to destroy them both....

Returning to claim his bride! Bram MacKinloch has spent seven long, torturous years in captivity with only three things to keep him alive—pure brute strength, a thirst for revenge and the memory of his beautiful wife's face. Shock is only one of the emotions coursing through Naina's body when she sees Bram again. His scars tell of suffering, the hunger in his eyes speak of a burning desire so raw it could consume them both. But a lot has changed since they so innocently wed.... Originally published in 2005
